MAX'S STORY

I have experienced Camp Tockwogh for two summers in the Leadership Programs, and one (hopefully more!) as a staff member. Camp for me really is my home away from home. Over the past 3 years, a combination of different factors hindered me from returning to Ghana over school breaks. While this was difficult, Tockwogh provided me with that same sense of family and community that I would have at home. I have learned important life lessons around responsibility and leadership, and before I make any major decisions, I always ask myself if it violates any of the four pillars of the Y.

Each summer at Tockwogh has yielded incredible and unforgettable experiences. I will never forget the shared sense of awe and incredulity as the whole camp fell silent after the "rain dance" at my first closing campfire. A surprisingly poignant discussion among the LITs about the feminist movement made me realize how much we had grown over the past four weeks alone. That heady rush of relief and giddy excitement among the office staff as we realized that we had survived our first check-in day was one of the best feelings I had all year. All of these moments were made possible by Tockwogh and the incredible sense of community the place fosters, and I am eternally grateful for that.
